

National Institute for Health Research

ANNUAL EVENT

Bigger, Better & Faster: How to grow & streamline our research

Wednesday, 22 February 2012

9.30 am to 3.30 pm

at

John Jarrold Suite, Sportspark, UEA,

Norwich NR4 7TJ

To book a place email norfolksuffolk.clrn@nuh.nhs.uk

The Comprehensive Research Network is part of the National Institute for Health Research Clinical Research Network, which supports research to make patients, and the NHS, better

Photograph by: Katy Walters

N&S CLRN Annual Event 2012—Programme

9:30 am	Arrivals and Registration Tea and coffee
10:00 am	Welcome and Update on N&S CLRN; success and future challenges Dr Andoni Toms, N&S CLRN Clinical Director
10.10 am	Welcome from Anna Dugdale, Chief Executive, Norfolk and Norwich University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
10:25 am	Keynote: Dr Jonathan Sheffield OBE, Chief Executive, NIHR Clinical Research Network. Followed by Q&A session
11.10 am	Coffee Break
11.30 am	Developing the research culture in NHS Suffolk: Dr Andrew Hassan, Medical Director, NHS Suffolk
12.00 pm	Perspectives from Industry: Megan Rook, Clinical Operations Manager, AMGEN A PI's perspective of an industry-sponsored study: What do we do well? What can we improve?" Prof Simon Donell, Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon and Injuries & Emergencies LSG Lead
12.40 pm	Lunch and Poster Sessions
1.30 pm	Developing the Local Research Agenda: Prof William D Fraser Professor of Medicine, Norwich Medical School, University of East Anglia
2.00 pm	Development of the Age & Ageing LSG: Dr Helen May, Consultant in MfE, NNUH, and Kelly Waterfield, MfE Research Nurse, NNUH
2.30 pm	The challenges of getting research engagement in a non-teaching hospital: the view from Ipswich Hospital: Dr Richard Watts, Consultant Rheumatologist and Director of R&D for Ipswich Hospital NHS Trust
3.00 pm	Final Comments Prize Giving and Close